POLAR BEAR ERASER

Did you know that a group of polar bears is called a celebration? Yup, it is. And we should celebrate this animal's very existence. Sadly though, the pressures of global warming imperil the future of the species. Kikkerland would like to see polar bears lumbering around for many more years to come. With this long-lasting polar bear eraser, we hope you'll be reminded of the real thing—that big white curious bear that needs your help to survive. 2% of sales of this product goes to helping endangered species through the center for biological diversity.
